

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

In the Matter of: : Chapter 7
Pharmaceutical Alternatives Inc. : Case No. 08-60905
Debtor. : Judge C. Kathryn Preston

TRUSTEE'S OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO PRE-PETITION PROOF OF CLAIM
NOS. 31, 32, 34, 35, 37, 38, 41, 42, 43, 45, 46, 47, 48, 52, 53, 54, 59, 61, 62, 66, 67, 69, 71, 72,
75, 76, AND 79
AND REQUEST FOR TENTATIVE ALLOWANCE OF THOSE CLAIMS, SUBJECT TO OBJECTION AT SOME LATER TIME

Now comes William B. Logan Jr., Trustee in Bankruptcy for Pharmaceutical Alternatives, Inc. and pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §502, Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007, and Local Bankruptcy Rule 3007-1, hereby objects to the proofs of claim filed by the creditors as identified on Exhibit A attached hereto, and requests the tentative allowance of those claims as pre-petition claims, which will receive no distribution at this time.

The Trustee has identified the claims listed on Exhibit A as pre-petition claims (that is, claims which arose before the date of the filing of the bankruptcy petition by the Debtor, which was November 5, 2008). One purpose of the Trustee's Objection is to provide notification to all pre-petition creditors regarding the status of the pre-petition claims as a whole, and the fact that the Trustee believes that the claims on the attached list appear to be pre-petition obligations. Another purpose of this Objection is to inform the pre-petition creditors that the Trustee is continuing the administration of the within estate; however, unless things change dramatically, pre-petition claims will not receive any distribution at any time. As a result, no final action will be taken at this time regarding any claim which is designated as a pre-petition claim.

If you feel that your claim is a post-petition claim, you should either amend your claim indicating the facts which would show that the claim is post-petition and is, therefore, entitled to priority as an administrative claim, or you should respond to this objection as set forth below. If no objection or response is filed to this Objection by a particular claimant, then each claim will be tentatively allowed in the amount indicated in the Filed Amount column of Exhibit A, with the understanding that all of the pre-petition claims listed on Exhibit A most likely will receive no distribution at any time. The Trustee is reserving the right to object to any of these claims at some point in the future, if it appears that any distribution will be made to pre-petition claimants.

For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee respectfully urges this Court to sustain its Objection to the claims as set forth herein, and to tentatively allow these claims as pre-petition claims, with the understanding that they will not receive any distribution, and that the Trustee could still object to any claim in the future, if it appears that some distribution might be made to pre-petition creditors.
